

Chicks with Sticks

The Chicks take a field trip.

By Carol Gay

On November 9 a group from Chicks with Sticks took a field trip to Unwind, a local yarn shop located at 7710 Waters Ave. Unwind Yarn and Gifts has an amazing array of yarns, patterns, and tools that crafters need and use. The staff, Wendy, Nel, and Tyra, are very knowledgeable about the yarns they sell. They can answer any questions you might have, and they are ready to help if you get stuck on a complicated set of stitches.

The yarn selection at Unwind is absolutely amazing; they carry everything from the smallest fingering and sock yarns to the currently popular bulky quick knitting yarns at a variety of prices. The shop is beautiful. Yarns are displayed from floor to ceiling, and wall to wall. There's a back room, too.

Unwind is a place to browse, touch the merchandise, and get caught up in a new project. I'll be returning there soon for a new pattern and some beautiful yarn. It takes me a while to make up my mind. After browsing and a little buying, we had lunch at The Howlin Hound, a nearby restaurant on Waters .

For some of us Unwind is an old friend; for others this trip was a new experience.

To join this group, contact group leader Carol Gay at ltlmeow@comcast.net

Pictured are (top) Faye Markwalter and Sungae Perkins, (middle) Judy French, and (bottom) Judy French, Manju Patel, Carol Gay, Marilyn Gignilliat, Faye Markwalter, Sungae Perkins, and Renae Bailey. Not pictured is Vicki Chubin.

Photos provided by C. Gay

